The entrant and model agree to hold NPAS harmless against all claims and liabilities arising out of NPAS's publication, display, or other use of any portrait image submitted to the Society. Award images will be posted on the NPAS website and selected images may be published in the NPAS Journal and/or Newsletters.

THE ASSESSMENT PROCESS (Portfolio Submission)

1. The Portfolio Assessment is designed to be an evaluation process and is conducted by a panel of five rotating judges, led by a non-voting coordinator. Portfolios are assessed anonymously.
2. Each Assessment begins with the viewing of the Overview Image while the Title and Statement of Intent are read. The individual images are then viewed one at a time. There is no discussion at this time as the judges are individually considering what they are seeing and have heard.
3. The process is then repeated, and the judges begin by determining whether the overview image presented is cohesive and reflects the Title and Statement of Intent. Assessment is done by individual scoring "in" or "out," followed by discussion, if needed, and an agreement regarding comments to be sent to the Portfolio's marker.
4. Each image is then assessed individually, once again by individual scoring and by discussion, to assess the technical quality and fit within the Portfolio.
5. A minimum of three judges (the majority) must score an "in" for success. The Overview Image as well as all the individual images must all achieve 75% or higher for the portfolio to succeed.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS (Solo Exhibition)

1. The longest side of the image area of the exhibiting photographs must be between 15" to 18".
2. Photographs can be displayed with or without mount and / or any matting.
3. The candidate should hand over 05 invitations to the Executive Director mentioning the date, place and time of the opening ceremony two weeks before the exhibition.
4. Digital image files of the works should be submitted separately within two weeks after the completion of the exhibition.

THE ASSESSMENT PROCESS (Solo Exhibition)

1. The Exhibition Photograph Assessment is conducted by a panel of three judges by visiting the exhibition gallery personally and assessed anonymously.
2. Members of the panel report the decision to the BOD individually. The BOD then considers the reports therein, and elections are conducted.
3. No candidate is elected unless two-third or a greater proportion of the judges vote in favor of his/her election.
